

Delivery of the Hardcopy of the Burrator Beacon

Dear Parishioners,

You may have noticed that the Autumn edition of the Burrator Beacon was delivered somewhat late or you may not have received a copy at all, as yet.

This is the result of a number of factors;

- The lockdown, we have had electronic versions only of the Beacon for nearly eighteen months
- Loss of information on delivery rounds
- Lack of contact details for volunteers to deliver the Beacon
- Change of Parish Clerk

We are looking to address these factors so that, hopefully, the delivery of hardcopies will return to normal with the Winter edition.

In the meantime, we are trying to deliver the outstanding copies of the Autumn issue, albeit late, as soon as can be arranged. We are conscious of the fact that some events advertised in this issue will already have occurred, but better late than never.

To our volunteers, please note that following the closure of the Post Office at Dousland, the Beacons can now be collected from the Burrator Inn as the new landlord, Mike, has agreed to store the magazines until collected. It would help us if you could confirm your contact details.

We appear to have gaps in some delivery rounds eg sections of the Burrator Road, between Manor Park and Lake Lane. However, where we are aware of these, we are addressing them. If you fail to receive the winter edition, please contact us and let us know, as soon as possible.

We are also looking for new volunteers to assist with deliveries, so if you want to help please contact us and we will try and allocate a delivery round in the vicinity of your location.

So please bear with us, the winter edition is due for issue at the end of November 2021.

If you wish to help by delivering the magazine, or to let us know if you haven't received the Autumn edition, please email the Parish Clerk at theclerk@burrator.gov.uk who will coordinate matters.

Many thanks for your understanding and support.
